PRAYER FOR SHAME

Lord, I know You died on the cross for the shame I am choosing to carry. I ask You to forgive me for not laying down this shame and leaving it at Your feet. I ask You to forgive me for letting shame steal my identity and not live my life to the fullest because I have chosen to let shame rule in me.

Lord, please forgive me for listening to the lies of the enemy and giving him place in my life instead of believing Your word. Please forgive me for listening to and believing the curses spoken over me, the feeling I need to hide because I am not worthy, for believing no one really loves me. Please forgive me for believing that you are not pleased with me. Please forgive me for making a “home” for these untrue feelings in my heart. Please forgive me for embracing rejection as a normal part of my life. I realize now these feelings are lies, and I renounce them as such. I declare You are a good God, and you only want the best for me.

Lord, I declare You love me unconditionally and only want the best for me. Help me to see through Your Word that Christ died for me and His righteousness is a free gift. It's not something I can produce within myself or daily strive to earn. Please help me to see that my righteousness is an absolute, bought for me by the blood of Jesus.

I FURTHER DECLARE THAT:

I am a child of God (Galations 3:26)

I am a new creation (2 Corinthians 5:17; Romans 6:1-11)

I am the dwelling place of God: A temple of Christ (1 Corinthians 3:16; 1 Corinthians 6:17; 19)

I am a Saint (1 Corinthians 1:2; Romans 1:7)

I am righteousness and holy (Ephesians 4:24; Romans 7:6)

I am His workmanship (Ephesians 2:10)

I am complete in Christ (Colossians 2:9-10; Hebrews 3:14)

I am an enemy of the devil (1 Peter 5:8; James 4:7)
